Dear Friends:

It is my pleasure to send greetings to each of you attending the Jazz for Peace benefit concert for Haven Grief Counseling Center.

Five years ago, Jazz for Peace featuring Rick DellaRatta held their landmark concert at the United Nations which brought together Israeli, Palestinian and American jazz musicians. Nearly 500 benefit concerts later, Jazz for Peace remains strong, supporting many worthy non-profit organizations.

One such organization is Haven Grief Counseling Center, which for thirty years, has provided an invaluable service to the Capital Region. Haven compassionately gives support and comfort to individuals and families impacted by bereavement, chronic or life-threatening illnesses or other traumatic experiences. These services give hope and encouragement to those affected and I join everyone in sending my appreciation and gratitude to Haven Grief Counseling Center.

You have my best wishes for a memorable concert and celebration.

Sincerely yours,
